About the project

The aim of the youth exchange is to raise awareness to the current and ongoing migration crisis and to combat all forms of racisms, exclusion, xenophobia and hate-speech in specific towards this target.

To achieve this goal we have decided to use theatre as an artistic approach, in specific, VERBATIM.

Verbatim theatre brings social issues to the stage by emphasizing factual information over aesthetic considerations. The creator starts a dialogue with the audience by focusing on the psychological and interpersonal aspect of a particular event. It sits at the intersection of art and engagement with the general public and can be seen as a catalyst for social change.

Working Methods

All the Youth Exchange activities will be done through the methods of non-formal education.

The activities will be for example brainstorming together, plenary discussions, simulations, role plays, team building, energizers, ice breakers and many others. Non-formal education is voluntary, non hierarchical and all its methods are based on the concept of learning by doing.
